GENERAL SCIENCE

1. Calculate the amount of wastewater produced by an R.O. purifier when you take out different quantities of water like 1 glass, 2 glasses and a jug etc. Record and analyse how much water is being wasted in daily usage. Based on your findings, suggest at least 5 simple and practical ways to reuse this wastewater at home. Record your observations neatly using A4 size sheets and present them in a visually creative way—using diagrams, colors, charts, or illustrated notes.

2. Track your shadow at three different times during the day – morning, noon and evening – for 3 to 5 days. Record the length and direction of the shadow by drawing it on paper. Observe how the shadow changes throughout the day. Use your observations to understand how the position of the sun affects shadows. Write your conclusion on A4 size sheet explaining the movement of the sun based on your findings.
